LESSON 00 · CHEAT SHEET

Terminal, Python & Git

START OF EVERY SESSION

cd "Documents\python-for-jen"   # go to the course git checkout lesson-00          # the lesson branch git pull                        # newest version cd lessons\00-setup             # work in here

TERMINAL BASICS (POWERSHELL)

`cd folder`	go into a folder
`cd ..`	go up one folder
`ls`	list what's here
`↑` arrow	repeat the last command
`Tab`	auto-complete a file name
`Ctrl+C`	stop whatever is running

RUNNING PYTHON

python                      # the >>> prompt >>> 1000 / 3
333.3333333333333
>>> exit()                  # leave the prompt python my_work\hello.py     # run a script python -i my_work\x.py      # run, then stay

The `>>>` prompt is like the VBA Immediate window (Ctrl+G).

YOUR FILES

my_work\hello.py            # you create these python my_work\hello.py     # run one

Same as expected output	done
Error	read the last line (what), then the line number (where)

GIT: THE FOUR WORDS

repository	folder that remembers its history
commit	save point + a note on what changed
branch	parallel copy; one per lesson
pull request	"please review my changes" (Track Changes)

GIT: EVERYDAY COMMANDS

git status                  # what changed?
git add .                   # stage everything git commit -m "Message"     # save point git push                    # upload to GitHub git pull                    # download changes git checkout lesson-01      # switch branch git log --oneline           # history git restore file.py         # undo my edits

VS CODE SHORTCUTS

`Ctrl+Shift+P`	command palette: find any command
`Ctrl+\``	open / close the terminal
`Ctrl+S`	save (Python runs the saved file!)
`Ctrl+/`	comment / uncomment line
▶ top right	run the current file

WHEN SOMETHING GOES WRONG

- "python is not recognized": reinstall with "Add to PATH" ticked
- "file not found": `ls`. Are you in the lesson folder?
- Fixed it but nothing changed? Did you save? (Ctrl+S)
- Git confused? `git status`, screenshot, send to Lars
